From the Imperial head Quarters at Revere, May 27. N. S. The Enemy having divided their Army into several Bodies, the Duke de Vendosme taking with him the strongest of them, passed over the River Tortare, and marched to Sanguinetto in the Veronese, with intent to cut off our Communication with the Country of Tirol. The 24th at night he advanced towards Pontemolino, and sent a Detachment to attack that Post; but our Forces there kept continually firing upon the Enemy with great and small Arms in such manner, that they were obliged to retire before break of day; and they have since begun to intrench themselves at some distance from thence: What they intend to do further is not yet known; but all possible Precautions are taken on our side to disappoint their Designs. The Prince of Vaudemont came lately to the Body of the Enemy which lies near the Secchia, and caused their Camp to be removed nearer to the River; whereupon a Battery of several Pieces of Cannon was with great Diligence raised on our side of the River, which began the 25th, betimes in the morning, to play upon the Enemy with so much fury, that they were forced to leave their Camp with such Precipitation, that many were seen to run away with only their Shirts on. General Vaubonne marched yesterday with a Detachment, consisting of 300 Horse, 700 Foot, and Paul Diacks's Regiment of Hussars, and passed the Po at Sermido, being ordered to advance beyond the Adige; upon what Design is not yet known.

Venice, June 1. N. S. Since the French Forces being entred into the Territories of this Republick, Expresses have arrived daily from Verona, with Accounts of the Disorders they commit, cutting down and destroying the Corn and Hay, and exacting Wine and other Provisions from the Inhabitants; whereupon the Senate has been extraordinarily assembled, and they sent an Express two days ago to the French Court to complain of these Proceedings. The French Ambassador was also sent for yesterday to the College, and acquainted therewith, and desired to represent it to his Master. A Regiment of Foot which was ordered to the Levant is countermanded, and sent to Verona to reinforce that Garrison, and more Forces will shortly be sent that way. The Count de Trautsmandorf is gone from hence to his Command in the Imperial Army under the Count de Staremberg, where we hear Prince Eugene, and several other Officers of Note, are speedily expected from Germany, with a good number of Recruits, whereof 2000 are already arrived at Trent, and 4000 more are said to be on their March. General Vaubonne, with a Detachment of 1000 Horse and Foot, and a Regiment of Hussars, is advanced to St. Michael, in the Veronese, and we hear the Imperialists have sent another Body towards Cologna, and a third to Castel-Baldo, to keep open their Communication with the Country of Tirol, and facilitate the coming up of these Succours. The French have made several Atempts on Ponte-Molino, and other of the German Posts, in all which they have been baffled, notwithstanding they are much superior in number, and we are told that in one of them the Grand Prior, Brother to the Duke of Vendosme, was killed, and that they have lost besides 500 or 600 Men.

Ratisbonne, June 11. On the 11th Instant the Marshal de Villars, with the whole Army under his Command, came within a Mile of Ulm, and pitched his Camp between Gokingen and Stetten. The 2d the Marshal came to Ulm, where he was received without the Gates by Colonel Pettendorf, the Governor, at the head of the Bavarian Horse, and was saluted with a triple discharge of the Cannon round the Town, and after having viewed the Fortifications of that Place, returned the same Evening to his Quarters. The 4th a Body of 9000 Bavarians, commanded by General Weichel and the Count de Monasterole, which were drawn together near Amberg, marched towards Rothemberg, upon whose Approach the Francenian Troops thought fit to abandon that Blockade, and retired to join the Detachment under General Hirtas, and they are now encamped together before Nuremberg, to the Number of 15000 Men, regular Troops and Militia. The Margrave of Bareith and his Lady are also come to Nuremberg, where they design to continue, to encourage the Inhabitants, who are making Preparations for a vigorous Defence; for it was given out that the Elector of Bavaria would very soon put himself at the head of his Troops, in order to attack Nuremberg, while the Marshal de Villars should besiege Nordlingen, whose Army was for that purpose to march the 4th from his Camp near Ulm: But in all Probability these Resolutions are altered; for by our Advices from Ulm of the 7th the French were not yet marched, nor did they even talk of decamping; The Horses and Carriages which had been demanded from Hocksted, Newbourg, and Aichstadt, for the use of the French and Bavarian Forces, are countermanded; the Provisions and Ammunition which were already brought to Ingolstadt, are carried back to Munich, where the Elector still continues; and the Watermen that had been got together to be employed in carrying the Foot, with the Baggage and Artillery, down the Danube, are now dismissed; so that it is judged they have no thoughts at present of making any attempt along the Danube. What may be the reason of this sudden change is yet unknown, only some think the Elector intends to turn his Forces towards the Country of Tirol.

Frankfort,

Frankfort, June 13. The Duke of Burgundy arrived the 8th Instant at the French Army commanded by the Marshal de Tallard, and is marching towards Landau; though some Advices say, that Army is not near so strong as is given out, and that they are not in a Condition to undertake the Siege of that Place, which is provided with a good Garrison, and with all Necessaries for its Defence. Prince Lewis of Baden is marched with the best part of his Troops to join the Count de Stirum, leaving only the Dutch and some Palatine Forces in the Lines at Stolhoffen, under the Command of General Thungen, who we hear is advanced with a Detachment towards Fort Louis.

Cologne, June 15. The Forces of the Circle of Westphalia are drawing together near Bon, in order to march towards the Upper-Rhine, and a considerable Reinforcement of the Forces of the Allies is also moving that way.

Hambourg, June 15. Letters from Riga of the 31st past confirm the taking of the Nyen-Schans the 14th of that Month by the Muscovites, and add, that the Garison marched out with all the Marks of Honour, and was conducted to Wyborg. The Muscovites afterwards marched towards Narva, and were advanced within 3 Leagues of that Place. Letters from Warsaw of the 29th give an Account, That the Forces of the Crown were incampedat Koko, and now and then sent out Parties to observe the Motions of the Swedes; and the Lithuanian Army lay at Wieskow. Some Advices from Graudentz of the 4th Instant say, the King of Sweden had altered his Resolution of carrying on the Siege of Thoorn, and intended to march back again with his Army towards the Greater Poland.

From the Camp at Hanneff, June 18. The 12th Instant our Right Wing made a great Forage near Wareene, with a Guard of 1000 Horse, under the Command of the Count de Noyelles Major-General, and Brigadier-General Wood, and 1500 Foot, commanded by Brigadier-General Withers; and though our Men Foraged within sight of the Enemy's Camp, yet they did not think fit to give them the least Disturbance. A small Party of Horse and Dragoons being sent the 13th at night to Patrole between the two Armies, met the next morning early with one of the Enemy's Parties of about 50 Horse, commanded by a Captain, a Lieutenant, two Corners, and a Quarter-Master, of whom they killed two, and took 9, with their Horses, and one of the Corners. The 14th, about 3 in the morning, a Party of 140 Horse and Dragoons, commanded by a Danish Lieutenant-Colonel, being upon the Patrole between the two Armies, fell in with one of the Enemy's Parties of 400 Horse and Dragoons; the latter being dismounted, and in Ambush in the Corn, in the very same Place where we beat them the morning before; and only a small Party of them appearing, a Coronet and 20 of our Men attacked them, being seconded by the Leutenant-Colonel with the rest of our Party, but falling into the Ambush, our Men were at first disordered, and in the Confusion the Lieutenant-Colonel, with a Captain, Cornet, and 12 Men, were taken, and 8 killed: however our People immediately rallied, and notwithstanding their inequality in number, obliged the Enemy to retire: The Prisoners they took are sent to Brussels, as we have sent ours to Maestricht, there being no Cattel for the Exchange of them. That day his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Monsieur d'Auverquerque reviewed part of the Horse of the Left Wing, as they did the rest the next day, and found them all in a very good Condition. The Count de Wratislaw, who is returning home from the Court of England, where he has resided with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor, being come from Dusseldorp as far as Liege to wait upon the Duke of Marlborough, his Grace went thither the 15th, and having dined with him and the Count de Zinzendorf, returned to the Camp, and this day they both came hither to return his Grace's Visit, and after Dinner went back to Liege, from whence the Count de Wratislaw intends to proceed forthwith to Vienna. Yesterday our Right Wing made a great Forage along the Maes near Huy. Both our Army and the French continue in the same Camps, the latter being posted in the opening between the Rivers Mehaigne and Jaar, where they are very strongly intrenched, and have made several Batteries in the Village of Thourinne in their Front.

Hague, June 19. N. S. Monsieur d'Opdam went from hence yesterday morning to take upon him the Command of the Confederate Forces which are encamped near Bergenopzoom, so that we may shortly expect to hear upon what Service they are to be employed. The last Post from Germany brought Letters from Landau, giving an Account, that the Duke of Burgundy's Army was advanced within a League of that Place, with 70 Pieces of Cannon, and they hourly expected to be invested: And that the Elector of Bavaria finding the Allies had taken such Precautions for the Security of Nurenberg, that it would be impossible for him to accomplish his Design upon that Town, he had countermanded the Preparations which were making for that Enterprise, and it was not yet known what he would attempt further. We have an Account by the way of Switzerland, that the number of the Malecontents in the Sevennes encreases daily, and that they have lately defeated some Troops which were in Garison at Alais and Anduse, and have obtained several other Advantages over the French King's Forces.

Bristol, June 9. The Primrose Pink of this Place arrived here this day in 6 weeks from Carolina, having left that Plantation very Healthy, and in great Plenty of all Things. The Nevis Merchant of this Place, Charles Kynion Master, is just now arrived from Nevis, having been about 11 weeks in his Passage, without meeting any Ship at Sea.
